WDIY Announces a Partnership with the Music Department of Moravian College.

(Lehigh Valley, PA) WDIY 88.1 FM proudly continues its media partnership with Musical Notes at Moravian College. The next musical performance highlighted by WDIY will take place on January 23rd at 7:30 p.m. with additional performances through May 2008.

Foy Concert Hall will host an Afro-Peruvian Sextet led by distinctive trumpeter and composer, Gabriel Alegria on Wednesday, January 23rd 2007 at 7:30 p.m. Foy Hall is located on the Hurd Campus of Moravian College at Main and Church Streets in Bethlehem, Pa.

Gabriel Alegria has combined American Jazz with the musical flavor of black coastal Peru. Exploring the cultural African roots through these genres has helped Alegria contribute a distinctive sound of Afro-Peruvian Jazz. Nuevo Mundo, Alegria's latest album, was influenced by the rich and mysterious Peruvian coastline. The Gabriel Alegria's Afro-Peruvian Sextet performance at Foy Hall is sponsored in part by Jazz Peru International.

Tune to WDIY 88.1 FM for ticket giveaways to performances throughout the 2007 and 2008 season. Members of WDIY receive a $5.00 discount off the general admission price to the Gabriel Alegria's Afro-Peruvian Sextet and additional select performances held in Foy Hall. For a listing of performances contact Amanda at (610) 694 8100 X8 or visit www.wdiy.org.

For additional information on Gabriel Alegria visit www.gabrielalegria.com.
